SMITH SILENT ON POLITICS

Governor Won't Say Whether He Will Seek New York Mayoralty

Albany, Nov. 6.—Governor Smith, defeated for re-election in Tuesday's election, today declared that no one, not even himself, knew what his political plans for the future might be. "I haven't given them a thought," he said.

Worn out and tired by the strenuous campaign he made during the month preceding Tuesday's election, the Governor returned to his desk at the capitol today and was the recipient of many telegrams of congratulation on the game fight he made for re-election.

The Governor plans to go to French Lick, Ind., next Monday, he said today. He will remain away from Albany for about two weeks and then intends to do much work.

Democrats To Reorganize

New York, Nov. 6.—Reorganization of the Democratic National Committee may take place in Washington early in December, when George White, chairman, expects to call a conference of committee members, he announced here yesterday.

"The situation is entirely different from eight and four years ago," Mr. White said. "Like the Republicans of those years we can have the anvil chorus after March 4."

The chairman declined to comment on the suggestion yesterday of William Jennings Bryan that President Wilson resign.

Chairman White had planned to leave here tonight on a 10-day hunting trip in Oklahoma. He was unable to get away, however, but said he expected to leave tomorrow night.

Discussing plans for the future, he expressed the hope that arrangements can be made at the meeting in Washington whereby, if he remains as chairman of the national committee, some other persons can be appointed to handle affairs at the Washington headquarters.

UNVEIL TABLET TO WAR HEROES

Secretary of War Baker and Rep. R. Walton Moore Speakers

CONTAINS 22 NAMES

Poem Read by H. C. Riely of Richmond. Prayer by Rev. E. M. Stires of New York—Tablet in Chapel.

If we lie prone and prostrate and do not analyze its causes there may be a war on a larger scale than the great world war just closed, said Secretary of War Newton D. Baker this afternoon in an address delivered in Liggett Hall of the Episcopal High School in connection with the unveiling of a handsome mural tablet in commemorating the twenty-two former students of that institution who made the supreme sacrifice during the world war. As terrible as this war was the next one will be more terrible he predicted. Forces which govern the forces of men he said are too vast to be effected by the individual. Prevention when the conflagration is on he said is out of the question. If these men are not to die in vain we must move now and move continuously he asserted.

Mr. Baker said we can't have it both ways in this world. We can have an armed camp or an international federation of whatever you choose to call it which will draw the support of the people everywhere. The greatest minds he said have despaired in finding it and have failed. Success and happiness said the speaker come from a system of relationships of justice and truth.

He told the young men that our act is nearly over and upon them rest whether or not this country will have a reputation of the disaster on civilization. Referring to the men who made the supreme sacrifice he said he would think of them lying in the fields of France with their faces upturned to the sky and he would think of them as an investment to the cause of peace.

Those who died he said passed on the torch to "you young men."

In opening his address Secretary Baker, who was given a big ovation, recounted his early experiences at the High School where he was a student. He told of the duties of life. The war he declared was the greatest event in the history of mankind since the flood.

Figures showing the magnitude of the world war were given by the speaker who said 54,000,000 men were and a half million died or were wounded and probably 20,000,000 died as a result of starvation or pestilence during the war.

The exercises were opened by Representative R. Walton Moore who presided and made an address. Mr. Moore in part said: We come here today to pay tribute to the memory of the men of this school who died in the world war. They learned the lesson of duty and eagerly went forward in the service of their country. They held the flaming torch of civilization and religion. The duty is on us to take care that it is not extinguished. Many of these men were in the springtime of life and we are happy that they are among the heroic dead. The dead whom we now mourn we hope shall not have died in vain. This tablet will be an impulse to all students in future years.

A poem entitled "The Boys," written by Harry C. Riely of Richmond, a former student of the school, was read by Mr. Riely who made a short address.

The exercises were opened with singing of "The Star Spangled Banner" after which a prayer was offered by Rev. Ernest M. Stires, rector of St. Thomas Church, New York.

At the conclusion of the address the audience sang "America" after which the assemblage gathered in the chapel where Secretary Baker unveiled the handsome tablet which is erected on the east wall of the chapel and which was surrounded by a memorial wreath and above which was suspended a bouquet of red roses. In Liggett Hall, where the unveiling took place, the stage was decorated with American and foreign flags. A large service flag containing about 800 stars representing that number of former students of the school who served in the world war, and also twenty-two gold stars for those who died was suspended on the back of the stage.

Immediately after the unveiling the invited guests were tendered a luncheon.

The affair was attended by a large gathering including many relatives of the men, high school students and former students of the school and others.

A number of persons from this city also attended.

THE REVIVAL MEETINGS
Great Crowds and Great Interest

The meeting last evening at the First Baptist Church witnessed a growing interest in the evangelistic meetings, conducted by the pastor, who is assisted by the Rev. H. I. Stewart of Washington City. Mr. Stewart took as the basis of his sermon the "Elder Brother" who he declared represented the "meanest man" The appeal of the "Father" to this unworthy son was brought out very effectively. Quite a number came to the front. The meetings will be continued at all the Sunday Services, and will probably extend into the earlier part of next week. Members from the churches of Alexandria are welcome at these services, and it is hoped that all the churches may profit thereby. There will be no service tonight.

ALLIES DIVIDE UP SPOILS IN TURKEY

England, France, Italy Sign Agreement to Support 'Spheres of Influence'

SECRECIES DISAVOWED

Pact Was Consummated August 10 and Just Now Given to World—Paris Already Guessing

Paris, Nov. 6.—France, Great Britain and Italy have signed a tripartite agreement in which they undertake to support each other in maintaining their "spheres of influence" in Turkey. The limit of the areas in which the respective interests of France and Italy are recognized are defined by the same document.

This agreement, it developed today was signed at Sevres on August 10, the day the public ceremonial of the signing of the peace treaty with Turkey took place. Although the agreement, it is explained, is not considered a secret one, it nevertheless has never been made public until now after a lapse of nearly three months since the signing. Under its own terms the document was to come into force and be published at the time the Turkey peace treaty should go into effect. This date is still an uncertainty.

In connection with examination of the text of the agreement, now available, attention is being called here to the fact that while the treaty defines the spheres of influence of France and Italy—recognizing the special interests of France in Cilicia and the western part of Kurdistan bordering on Syria and of Italy in southern Anatolia—the British spheres of influence are not only undefined, but are not referred to. This has raised the question if the agreement is susceptible of the interpretation that the British interests may be held to extend to any or all the remaining parts of the Turkish Empire.

It is noted also that while the agreement does not take the form of an alliance, it nevertheless pledges the contracting Powers to "render diplomatic support to each other in maintaining their respective positions in the areas in which their special interests are recognized."

One section of the document provided for the exploitation of the Bagdad railway by a company in which British, French and Italian capital is equally interested. It gives the exploitation of the Heracles coal mines, in Turkey, Konien and Adana, to Italy. Article X of the agreement provides that nothing contained in it shall prejudice the rights of nationals of non-signatory States to free access to the various areas for commercial and economic purposes. The preamble reads:

"Being anxious to help Turkey develop her resources, and to avoid the international rivalries which have obstructed objects in the past, and being desirous to meet the request of the Turkish Government that it receive necessary assistance in the reorganization of justice, the finances, the railways and of the police, in the promotion of religious, racial and linguistic minorities and the economic development of the country, considering that the autonomy or eventual independence of Kurdistan has been recognized by them, and that it is desirable with a view to facilitating the development of that country and make provision for any assistance it may require in its administration; and to avoid international rivalries in such matters; recognizing the respective special interests of Italy in southern Anatolia and of France in Cilicia and the western part of Kurdistan bordering on Syria; up to Jazireh-Ibn-Omir, as these areas are hereafter defined, the British, Italian and French Governments have agreed:

Dutch Throne May Go.

The Hague, Nov. 6.—The possibility of becoming a republic is in prospect for Holland under recommendations submitted yesterday by the commission appointed to revise the constitution. If these recommendations are adopted, Holland will have the chance to decide upon doing away with royalty, unless the little Princess Juliana, only child of Queen Wilhelmina and Prince Consort Henry, some day gives birth to a son by a husband whom the Dutch Parliament approves as her consort. The Princess now is 11 years old.

Men's Meeting

Judge W. F. Norris Will Speak at Richmond Tomorrow Afternoon At 3 P. M.

Judge William F. Norris, of the Department of Justice, who is to address the first "men only" meeting of the Y. M. C. A. at the Richmond Theatre tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock is one of America's best informed jurists.

Immediately after the United States took the Philippines the government sent him to Manila as a judge, and he stayed there seven years administering the affairs of state. While in the orient he traveled extensively in China and Japan and is probably as well acquainted with the East as any man connected with the judicial branch of the government.

Judge Norris returned to the States in 1912 and has been connected with the Department of Justice ever since but he has kept in touch with the East and its problems and now, since the election is over, he promises to tell some interesting things regarding America and its opportunities and obligations.

The meeting will be held in the Richmond Theatre and will begin at 3 o'clock with a band concert of thirty minutes by the Citizens' band. Special music will be provided but the men will be given an opportunity to sing some old familiar songs led by W. E. Dunn. The meeting will be free and admission will be by ticket, but as several thousand tickets are being distributed it is thought that all men wishing to attend will be provided.

LOST!

HARDING TO LEARN PEACE VIEWS

Invites Leading Proponents of Various Plans to Conference Next Month

PROMISES RECALLED

President Elect Declines Wilson's Offer of Warship for Trip—Confers With Hays

Marion, Ohio, Nov. 6.—President-elect Harding already has begun fulfillment of his campaign promise to consult the nation's leading minds with regard to a new association of nations, and he hopes that by the time of his inauguration next March he will have laid the ground-work of a plan behind which the sentiment of the nation can unite.

A list of those to be consulted first has been drawn up and invitations are going forward to several to come to Marion at the conclusion of the month's vacation trip, which is to be started by the President-elect tomorrow morning. Both Republicans and Democrats are to present their views in individual and personal talks with Mr. Harding during the winter months, but he does not contemplate for the present, at least, any general assembly of his advisers for round-table discussion.

The names of those already invited have not been made public, but it was said in an announcement from the President-elect's office last night that "men and women who have been eminent in the discussion of our foreign relations" made up the list. Attention will be made during Mr. Harding's vacation trip, it was added, although no consideration will be given by him during that period to the choice of a Cabinet.

The announcement followed a long conference between Senator Harding and W. H. Hays, who as Republican national chairman led the campaign for Harding and Coolidge. Neither revealed what subjects they had discussed, but it was understood the chairman's visit here was made at Mr. Harding's request and had to do both with the campaign just closed and with the policies to be shaped for the coming administration.

The objective of the Senator's vacation trip is Point Isabel, Texas, and although he plans to occupy most of his time there hunting and fishing another of his close campaign advisers, Harry M. Daugherty, will accompany him. It is taken for granted there will be some discussion of policies and administrative programs between them.

Today Mr. Harding declined an offer of President Wilson to provide him with a battleship for the voyage to the Panama Canal Zone, which is to follow a 12 day stay at Point Isabel. In response to a telegram from Secretary Daniels, conveying the President's proposal, the President-elect wired that he was thankful, but already had closed an agreement to make the trip on a passenger steamer.

It was said at Harding headquarters last night that a hitch over the sailing schedule had been adjusted, and that a proposal to have the liner go out of its regular course to pick up the party at Galveston had been abandoned. Under the present plan the departure will be made from New Orleans, to which point the Senator and Mrs. Harding and their guests will go from Point Isabel by rail. The sailing date, however, has not been announced.

That the plan for conferences on an association of nations already was taking form was revealed in this announcement from Mr. Harding's office.

"Senator Harding let it be known today that he is sending out a number of requests for personal and very informal conferences with men and women who have been eminent in the discussion of our foreign relations. These conferences will take place upon his return to Marion in December and will be individual and personal, with the main purpose of learning what policy may elicit united support."

"Senator Harding means to avoid any unseemly anticipation, but he feels it wholly becoming to get an ex-

PENDULUM'S RAPID SWINGS.

Republicans who, in the first flush of enthusiasm over their sweeping victories, imagined that they have been given by the American people a long-term lease on the job at Washington are invited to consider calmly a few preceding elections, the study of which may moderate their raptures. In 1872, when President Grant sought a re-election against Horace Greeley, who was supported by the Democrats and liberal-minded Republicans, he was victorious by a plurality of 769,991, an unprecedented figure for that day, and received 286 electoral votes to only 63 for the opposition. But two years later, in 1874, the Democrats swept the country, gained control of Congress, and in 1876 secured a plurality of 250, 935 in the popular vote. It was only by fraud and a single electoral vote that they were deprived of the Presidency.

When President Garfield was elected by a trifling plurality in 1880, he carried Congress with him, and the Republicans secured 146 seats, as against 138 for the Democrats. Yet two years later the Democracy came back with a whoop, retaining Congress by 198 to 124, and in 1884 the secured the Presidency and strengthened their grip on the House of Representatives.

Though defeated in the popular vote, Benjamin Harrison secured 232 electoral votes in 1888 to 169 for Grover Cleveland. In 1890 a Democratic landslide almost swept the Republicans out of existence, and their representation in Congress was reduced to a beggarly 88, as against 236 Democrats. This great triumph was followed up in 1892, when Cleveland decisively defeated Harrison and both the Senate and House were Democratic by substantial majorities. Yet so fleeting is the favor of the American electorate that only two years later the Republicans came back with a rush, and in 1896, thanks to the follies of William Jennings Bryan, they entered upon their 16 years' control of the Government ended by Woodrow Wilson in 1912.

It is clear from these sudden mutations that no party can count confidently upon any protracted tenure of office. Never were American voters so fickle as they are today and so prone to sudden switches in their political views. In the next four years, unless all signs fail, we are likely to see many extraordinary proofs of this instability of popular sentiment, which will be increased by the addition of many millions of women to electorate. It is a right for our Republican friends to crow now. The history of the past 50 years shows that the pendulum will not be long in swinging back toward the Democracy.

TO THE PUBLIC

(Communicated.)

To the Editor,
Alexandria Gazette.

Dear Sir:—
Last year the employees of the Old Dominion Glass Company for the second time petitioned city council for a better road leading to the plant of that company and also for sidewalks. However, it seems that anything is good enough for the poor working man. The employees sent a committee to city council each meeting night for several meetings hoping to secure favorable action on the proposition. No action was obtained.

This road is a disgrace to the citizens of Alexandria. In the winter time the men have to wade in water up to their shoe tops or walk over the city's dumps where there are thrown dead horses that have been skinned, and it has not been a month ago when a dog was shot and left lying on the sidewalk in plain view of those compelled to travel out North Fairfax street.

We would like to know what the city health officer is here for. If it is not for him to look out for such things as that. In fact, he didn't know such a thing happened until he called his attention to it.

Everybody has heard of the sad news of one of our fellow citizens who met his death by falling into a sixty foot well while trying to put out a small fire. If we had the right kind of a water system, this would not have happened.

Everyday vehicles of every description use the sidewalk on North Fairfax street in preference to the so-called road. Less of the mud are in danger at all times while traveling on that road, and it is time that somebody waded up and got to work. After the first petition was sent to city council if we are not mistaken the sum of $2,500 was appropriated to pave the road and all that was done was to dig a bank and throw the earth on the road and, and the men stood behind the tank at the factory in winter half of the time is kept warm.

We give the fire department credit for trying to get water but it was almost impossible to do it. In our estimation the credit goes to the employees of the Old Dominion Glass Company and a few individuals who were there, that helped to save the factory. We the employees thank the fire department for responding in helping to pull out a fellow workman. It was a piece of heroic work on the part of one of the firemen who went into the well and tied a piece of rope around him and pulled out Mr. Ale and we thank him individually.

This is the fourth fire that has occurred in that section of the city, and the same thing has happened on these occasions and it is time the city was wakened up.

Signed, Employees of the Old Dominion Glass Company.

XMAS SEALS.

Richmond, Nov. 6.—At a recent meeting of the Virginia Tuberculosis Association a campaign committee was nominated to direct the sale of Christmas tuberculosis seals. Dr. Edwin A. Alderman, President of the University of Virginia, has accepted the chairmanship of this committee, of which the following gentlemen are members: Hon. G. Walter Lipp, Accomack, Rt. Rev. D. J. Connell, Richmond, Mr. S. H. McElroy, Salem, Hon. R. Walton Moore, Fairfax, Mr. J. E. West, Suffolk, Dr. George W. McDaniel, Richmond, Dr. Joseph D. Eggleston, Hampden-Sydney, Mr. R. Tate Irvine, Big Stone Gap, Dr. J. A. C. Chandler, President of William and Mary College, and Hugh Sprout, Staunton and Mr.

Richard Evelyn Byrd of Winchester. The Association is encouraged by the reduction of the tuberculosis death rate as shown by the statistics for the ten years since its organization and it is hoped that the clinics, which are increasing in number each year will further reduce paths from this disease.

If you want to see a good football game Sunday, follow the crowd to the Shipyard and watch the Virginia's action against one of the strongest teams in Washington, the Seamen. The Seamen has always been a drawing card in Alexandria and the Virginia will have to hustle all the time for a victory. Game at the Shipyard called at 1 o'clock. The entire field is roped off and stands on each side of the field for your accommodation. Ladies specially invited.

The Dreadnaught football team will drop on Bassett's Field against the Spartans A. C. of Washington, D. C., Sunday at 2 p. m. This team asked for the game two weeks ago, offering to play for the entire receipts on the gate, winner take all. The Big D has been taken by surprise when this offer came, as no team would make such a bold offer unless they were confident of a win over the local elumen. All those who wish to see this battle tomorrow should be given a chance to see some real sports under this agreement. Nothing is known regarding the strength of the Spartans A. C. other than that they held Rex A. C. to a 0-0 score two years ago. Improvements are being made on the grounds each week and should afford good accommodations to all those who attend the games. The Big D line up will be the same as last Sunday with Billy Crouch leading the team with his wonderful fighting spirit, in the tackle position. His driving spirit has helped a great deal in the success of the Dreadnaught team during the past two years. He asks the backing of all Alexandrians when he leads his team against the Washington Navy Varsity team at the American League Park, Sunday, November 21, 1920. Bring the ladies tomorrow and enjoy one hour of real sport.

Implicated Kentucky Jailer Elected Over The Judge Who Sentenced Him.

Wicksburg, Ky., Nov. 6.—Probably the most unusual outcome of Tuesday's election in Kentucky was the victory of Fess Whitaker, jailor of Whitesburg, over Stephen Combs, Jr., in the race for County Judge. Whitaker having been sentenced to his own jail for a term of six months by Judge Combs on the charge of attacking county officers, including the Sheriff.

After being placed in the jail, of which he was the legal keeper, Whitaker escaped, was recaptured and again sentenced for jail-breaking. Following one of the most exciting campaigns known to the mountains of Kentucky, Whitaker, though in jail, won over Judge Combs by more than 1,000 majority. Governor Morrow has three times refused to pardon Whitaker.

Unemployment Increases.

Boston, Nov. 6.—The highest record of unemployment for any month this year was announced yesterday in the report of the State Public Employment Office for October. Orders from employers fell off 22 per cent. from the preceding month, and 42 per cent. from the figures of a year ago.

The closing, or part-time operation of "factories," Superintendent Harry G. Dunderdale said in the report, "has resulted in large numbers of men and women visiting the office in search of work, but a majority of the applicants having spent a large portion of their lives in the textile and like industries, are not physically able to accept positions which call for sturdy manual labor."

Connecticut Woman Voted Three Times; Thought That Was Rule.

Winsted, Conn., Nov. 6.—When the moderator opened the voting machine in Plainville following Tuesday's election and counted the ballots he found that some one had voted three times. There were 1,179 votes cast by 1,177 persons. The investigation disclosed that a well-known woman had walked from one machine to the other and voted in each one. She thought those were the rules.

M., in the Court Room of the State Corporation Commission, Richmond, Virginia, apply to said Commission for authority to make certain changes in car demurrage rules and charges applicable on intra-state traffic in Virginia, effective December 1st, 1920, and to expire May 1st, 1921, as follows:

(a) Increases the charges per car per day:
For each of the first four days from $2. to $3. per day. Increase $1.00.
For each of the next three days from $3. to $4. per day. Increase $1.00.
For each succeeding day after the first 7 days from $4. to $5. per day. Increase $5.00.

(b) Decreases the penalty charges on all open top cars and all cars loaded with coal and coke of $10. per day, through the cancellation and withdrawal of the charge.
(c) Modifies Rule 8, Paragraph 2 of Section A, by allowing an additional forty-eight (48) hours, making a total of ninety-six (96) hours free time, for shipments frozen, etc.

Modifies Rule 8, Paragraph 2 of Section B, by providing for such free time as consignee would have been entitled to had cars been delivered in accordance with the daily rate of shipment.

(d) Increases the charge under Rule 9, Average Agreement, Section A, after four (4) debits, from $5. to $6. per day for each of the next three (3) days and $10. per car per day thereafter; in Section B, from $2. per debit to $3. per debit.

(e) Modifies Section E of Rule 9 by the addition of a clause excepting cars that have been bunched, caused by strike of carrier's employees, or where shipments of coal are withheld by the carrier to protect its fuel supply and subsequently delivered to consignee in accumulated numbers.

Night Life Doomed.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—The doom of Chicago's night life was forecast yesterday when Charles J. Cullen, district attorney, announced that he would close all night clubs, but to prohibit guests bringing their own plates and to close every place where guests were allowed to use hip-pocket flashers, and to arrest the proprietors and waiters for violation of the Volstead law.

At the same time, Police Chief Garrity asked the City Council for legislation giving the police greater power to regulate cafes and cabarets. Mayor William Hale Thompson last week revoked the licenses of two of the best-known all-night cabarets after hearing charges that liquor had been permitted on the premises.

R. E. Shops Cut Working Forces 25 Per Cent.

Lafayette, Ind., Nov. 6.—Notices were posted yesterday at the Union Railroad shops here announcing a 25 per cent reduction in the working force of the locomotive department to take effect November 10. This is the second cut since September. The new order will put 150 men out of work.

Overland Plant Closes Today.
Toledo, Ohio, Nov. 6.—An announcement was made yesterday that the Overland Automobile plant, normally employing around 15,000 workers, will be shut down today for inventory and will remain closed for an indefinite period.

Glee Party 700 Feet Deep.

Mount Carmel, Pa., Nov. 6.—A most unusual party took place 722 feet under ground at Reliance colliery, yesterday, when fellow-workmen gave a surprise party to George Young, Jr., at the noon hour. Seventy lighted candles, representing the years of his life, were a half-pound pack of tobacco which, together with a new pipe, were the presents. The noonday lunch served as the banquet and Bernard O'Toole was master of ceremonies and toastmaster.

Bryan Suggests Wilson Quit to Let Harding In Chicago, Nov. 5.—William Jennings Bryan here yesterday suggested that as a result of the election, President Wilson resign immediately allowing Vice President Marshall to assume the office.

pression entirely free from campaign bias, and to get it at the earliest possible day. It is the first step toward the meeting of minds of which Senator Harding so frequently spoke during the campaign. He did not make public any list, because it will not be complete before his vacation ends.
"Senator Harding further announced that no consideration would be given to a Cabinet during his recreation period."

Officials close to the President-elect called attention that in his campaign speeches he promised repeatedly that the "meeting of minds" would begin as soon as possible after his election, and that he also frequently declared that the purpose of his consultations would be not to suggest any plan of his own, but to ascertain how divergent views might be so brought into harmony as to put a united nation behind him in his negotiations with other powers.
He also has indicated in campaign speeches that irreconcilable opponents of the League of Versailles, as well as its ardent supporters, would be numbered among those to whose advice he would listen. To the Senate he promised to give a share of attention proportionate to its powers in perfecting treaties.

Although the President-elect has never named publicly any of those he will include in his consultations, speculation of a wholly unauthorized character has resulted previously about his possible cabinet figures, who might answer to the description of a wholly unauthorized character.

W. P. HUPP, of Akron, Ohio, who says he would not take one thousand dollars for the good Tanlac has done him. Declares his health has been fully restored and that he has gained over 20 pounds.

"I would not take one thousand dollars for the good Tanlac did me," said W. P. Hupp, 839 Camden St., Akron, Ohio, for the past ten years a valued employee with the Firestone Tire and Rubber Co.

"I will always owe a great debt of gratitude to Tanlac," he said, "because it restored my health completely after everything else failed, and I have gained over twenty pounds. I can now eat better, sleep better and work better and I feel like a brand new man."

"Before taking Tanlac I suffered night and day from indigestion and my stomach was terribly disordered. I was nervous and weak and could neither eat nor sleep to do any good. I seemed to be going down hill every day for six years. Finally, my condition became so rundown that I lost one or two days from work every week. But, now since my troubles have been overcome. I can hold my own with any man at the plant, and often after working hard all day, I put in overtime at night and feel none the worse from it. I just seem to be full of new life and energy."

"After seeing the good Tanlac did me, my wife began taking the medicine and now she says she feels better than she has in years."

"Tanlac certainly beats anything I ever saw in my life."

Tanlac is sold in Alexandria by Edgar Warfield, Jr., and Gibson's Drug Store.

GERMAN SHIP AT NEW YORK

New York, Nov. 5.—The first merchant steamship flying the German flag to come to the port of New York since July, 1914, arrived here yesterday. The vessel, which marks the resumption of trade with Germany under the flag of that country, was the Sophie Rickmers, of 4,863 tons, built in Germany during the war. She is flying the old German merchant marine flag. The Rickmers was retained by the Germans under the armistice regulations, which permitted that country to keep vessels under construction and not 50 per cent completed when the war ended. The ship is in ballast and will take cargo here for the return voyage. Her captain and crew are Germans. None of the crew was permitted ashore. The captain, however, was excepted in that he was allowed to go to the customs house to enter his ship.

The officers and crew represented virtually all branches of the former German emperor's land, sea and air forces. After the war.

Pepto-Mangan Creates Rich, Red Blood, Changes Pale Complexions to Bloom of Health

A serious illness, even a cold that is hard to shake off, can reduce the blood to a weak, watery condition which keeps the normal strength and vigor from coming back.

This poor physical condition brings on a helpless, discouraged mental condition which rich, red blood can restore.

Pure blood should be rich in iron which Nature supplies to some extent in food. But often through faulty digestion or improper diet you don't get the needed iron, and your blood, on which your health depends, grows weaker and weaker.

Guide's Pepto-Mangan enriches the blood, increases the red blood cells and supplies the ingredients that bring a quick response in vigor, vitality, and fine color.

Physicians recommend Guide's Pepto-Mangan. When you order, be sure the word "Guide's" is on the package. Without "Guide's" it is not Pepto-Mangan. Furnished in both liquid and tablet form. For sale by all druggists.—Adv.

THE PROPER COURSE

Information of Priceless Value to Every Alexandria Citizen

How to act in an emergency is knowledge of inestimable worth, and this is particularly true of the diseases and ills of the human body. If you suffer with kidney backache, urinary disorders, or any form of kidney trouble, the advice contained in the following statement should add a valuable asset to your store of knowledge. What could be more convincing proof of the efficiency of Doan's Kidney Pills than the statement of a Alexandria citizen who used them and who publicly tells of the benefit derived?

Guy Pettit, railroad engineer, 114 Commerce St., Alexandria, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for a number of years and they have done me so much good I wouldn't be without them. I usually carry a box of Doan's with me because my kidneys are apt to get out of order. This is from the jarring of the engine. However I only have to use a few of Doan's Kidney Pills and I am not bothered any more."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Pettit had. Foster-McBreen Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Inmate Kills Prison Head.

Camden, N. J., Nov. 6.—Crazed by liquor, a prisoner in the Burlington County jail at Mt. Holly, near here, yesterday beat to death W. Harry King, a warden.

Then he ran amuck through the prison, crushing the skull of Charles Vernon Bartlett, a "trusty," by blows of a poker, the same weapon with which he assailed the keeper.

Bartlett is in the Burlington County Hospital, Mount Holly, and is not expected to live.

The prisoner, Harry Asay, 36, a junk dealer, of South Burlington, after killing King and wounding Bartlett, fled from the jail to the yard.

He tried to scale a 20-foot wall surrounding the yard. Failing, he armed himself with an axe and an iron pipe, threatening Joseph Jones, a colored prisoner, who had grappled with him in the jail.

Asay surrendered when Ellis Parker, a Burlington County detective, leveled a shotgun at his head, and warned the man he would pull the trigger unless he threw away the axe.

Asay was arrested in Burlington for drunkenness Thursday night. He developed delirium tremens during the night, according to the authorities.

Plan to Cut Costs of Clothing Falls

New York, Nov. 6.—Idleness still prevails in New York's clothing making industry, and negotiations still going on between the manufacturers and the Amalgamated Clothing Workers have as yet brought no settlement looking toward lowered manufacturing costs and consequent cheaper clothing.

There have been no agreements, informal or otherwise, which justify statements that work will be resumed on a basis of reduced wages or a piece-work system of guaranteed production output if a minimum wage scale is established, said Maj. R. H. Mitchell labor manager for the Clothing Manufacturers' Association, yesterday morning. The association's original demand was for a 50 per cent reduction in labor costs.

Rob. Sheet Bank Messenger

Chicago, Nov. 6.—Four bandits yesterday held up a messenger of the Hyde Park State Bank of Chicago and escaped with a satchel containing $41,000 in liberty bonds and coupons and $257,000 in nonnegotiable checks.

The messenger and a bystander were shot and beaten when they resisted the attack. The robbers leaped into a waiting automobile and fled.

Girl On Way Home Slain in City Lot

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 6.—Miss Edna Ellis, 18 years old, was found murdered in a clump of weeds in a vacant lot in the northern section of the city. Miss Ellis was a stenographer and was considered pretty. Her throat had been slashed, and a broken razor was near the body.

The girl had been beaten severely. Both eyes were discolored, and her left jaw was swollen. The body bore numerous marks of maltreatment.

The condition of the ground near where the body was found indicated Miss Ellis fought desperately with her assailant. The lot is located in a populous section.

Miss Ellis, who lived near the scene of the murder, was last seen getting off a street car in the neighborhood on route home from work last evening. Shortly before the body was found at 9 a. m. Miss Ellis' mother reported to police that her daughter had not come home last night.

Police began a search of the neighborhood, and footprints in the lot led to the discovery of the body.
